

The Dewyletter

March 2026

Making sure you know that the assassins have failed since 2025!

Updates From Dewy

February is a strange month. It's early enough in the year that you're still figuring out a lot of structural issues for the year but it's late enough that you really should be started on them. And then taxes show up. Those are never fun. But it's going well! Truly! I couldn't be happier. It truly just gets crazier and better from here.

This Past Month on the Blog and Show

We've covered some of my personal practice points this past month, from the importance of my hat to how I utilize astrology. I also got to tell a fun tale about how some law students collectively kind of stole and got away with it.

The show is in re-runs until April. Feel free to check out the timeslot if you need to catch up!

One and Done Events

This month I will be performing for a place that means a lot to me personally: St. Luke's Lutheran Church near Times Square. On March 23 at 6:00 PM, we are going to be doing a benefit featuring all of the different organizations that utilize their space. Come out to Under One Roof to catch the fun!

Shameless Plugs

Have you checked out the station my show is on yet? It's called 201.5 Reality Central Radio and is on 24/7 on Live 365. I may have to write a whole blog post defending the title of The Realest Mix Around, as I had a large part in shaping the station's licensed music library. But it's fun! Check it out!
