

The Dewyletter

June 2026

Existing with malicious compliance since 2025!

Updates From Dewy

Hamilton Underground has decided to take a break from hosting tarot for a little bit, which I completely understand. But it means I only have one monthly event for tarot. And, if there's one thing I'm bad at, it's sitting on my hands. I do have some projects that I'll probably finally get to now that I have more availability, but in the long term I'll definitely find something to do. Stay tuned my lovelies!

This Past Month on the Blog and Show

An interesting month on the blog to be sure. We started with two "conversations" that I feel like we've all had at one point. Then two listicles about my thoughts on getting external opinions as well as my title as a rogue lawyer. Well, that last one technically came out today, but it was me making up for missing last week so it's still a "May" article. Don't worry about it!

The radio show completed its season with multiple exclusive interviews and some episodes that really pushed me creatively. If you haven't listened to them, they came out really great. Plus, certain events transpired that have officially made me the Dewy. Want to know more? Go listen already!

Your Regularly Scheduled Dewy (Repeating Events)

The Psychic Salon at The Caravan of Dreams (Manhattan, NY): June 23 from 6-9 (nice)

NOTE: This is a Tuesday. Just wanted to flag since most of my stuff happens on weekends.

The Radio Demon in Residence at RPM Underground (Manhattan, NY): June 13 from 5-?

Dewy's Ones and Dones (One Time Events)

I already talked about the Love Wins Film Festival that I'm going to be at on June 6 at the Sayville Theater last month. If you want more details, go to lovewinsfilmfestival.com

I'm also going to be in a live play reading for a very avant-garde show called Moonbodies at the Flea in NYC on July 12 at 7:30 PM. It's a show you will definitely not forget!

Shameless Dewy Plugs

The Radio Demon's Lair has finished it's first season! The full season is on dewy.nyc/trdlbacklog for your listening pleasure. Season 2 is set to premiere in September, but that may change. But it is happening!
