

The Dewyletter

February 2026

Giving you something to look forward to since 2025!

Updates From Dewy

January was a kind of rest month for me and, honestly, I'm so glad I did it. It really let me bring my head up from a lot of projects I haven't put down for some time and just... refresh. Highly recommend. But that doesn't mean I haven't been busy! I'm really bad at doing nothing, I've discovered. For starters, I've added a third monthly location I'll be doing tarot at in the city. Feel free to come by! Do know I don't put the event together and agree with everything presented, but it's never boring.

This Past Month on the Blog and Show

I took off from the blog this month, and that showed me that the radio show is becoming another creative outlet that I'd be remiss to not recount here as well! We came back with new episodes on 1/23 with an interview with Idle Friend and followed that up with the next week being a dive into an exploration of gender in music. But if you enjoy the blog, you'll really like the radio show. Check it out on Fridays at 7:00 CT/8:00 ET.

Your Regularly Scheduled Dewy (Monthly Events)

One and Done Events

This month, we have two special events! First is It Came From The Radio (and, before you ask, I had no part in naming it; it's just a happy coincidence) on February 11 at 7:00 at the East Meadow Public Library. It's free, but helps if you register online at <https://eastmeadow.libcal.com/event/15981383>. Then, I have a special Valentine's Day episode of The Radio Demon's Lair that will be airing in the normal slot on that Friday, but also re-airing on Valentine's Day! Hope to see you around!

Shameless Plugs

New episodes of The Radio Demon's Lair will continue weekly through February and will be re-aired through March in case you miss anything. Also, be sure to check out the new Hazbin on Broadway!
