Updates From Dewy

Hey! Turns out that I woke up this morning with a text from Hamilton Underground asking to reschedule the scheduled tarot readings today. If you were coming out for one, I'm still in the area. Just let me know and we can link up separately.

Today is also a Radio Demon in Residence show that I am still going to be at. Should be a good time!

Outside of that, last night was the Season 1 finale of The Radio Demon's Lair! It went really well. You should check out the backlogged version ASAP. A really cool thing happened that you'll have preferred to have experienced than to hear about later.

Schmoopy Schmoopy Doopy,
